Coaching is based on each partner's response to a series of questions. These questions range over the wide areas of relationship which are of importance to most couples. There are different sets of questions for your own unique circumstances whether you have never been married, re-marrying, living together, blended families or over fifty. They are administered by a trained Professional Life Coach, Lorri Mason who has been endorsed to use the program.

Lorri meets again with a couple on several occasions and from a detailed computer analysis of their answers, feedback is provided. In this process the couple is helped to identify the strengths and the work areas of their relationship, as well as to sharpen their skills in talking to each other and solving relationship issues.

A good start

PREPARE will get you off to a good start.

It is designed to give you a clearer view of your relationship.

Takes the best in the relevant body of knowledge and experience and makes it available to you.

PREPARE will help :

- To improve your communication
- To increase your confidence
- To extend your understanding of each other
- To build up your relationship strengths.

Draws from the vast research of those influences in today's society which cause some marriages to break down and more importantly, what helps others to succeed.
